

Campaign for a Smoke-Free Alberta Questionnaire

Answers from Wildrose Leader Danielle Smith

1. The Wildrose Caucus does not have a position on this – our MLAs have different views on the subject. If it were raised as a private member’s bill, it would be subject to a free vote.
2. The Wildrose Caucus does not have a position on this – our MLAs have different views on the subject. If it were raised as a private member’s bill, it would be subject to a free vote.
3. The Wildrose Caucus does not have a position on this – our MLAs have different views on the subject. If it were raised as a private member’s bill, it would be subject to a free vote.
4. The Wildrose Caucus does not have a position on this – our MLAs have different views on the subject. If it were raised as a private member’s bill, it would be subject to a free vote.
5. The Wildrose Caucus does not have a position on this – our MLAs have different views on the subject. If it were raised as a private member’s bill, it would be subject to a free vote.
6. Yes. Using a significant portion of tobacco tax revenue to develop measures to help Albertans quit smoking would be a very good use of this revenue stream.