

STAND UP FOR EDMONTON

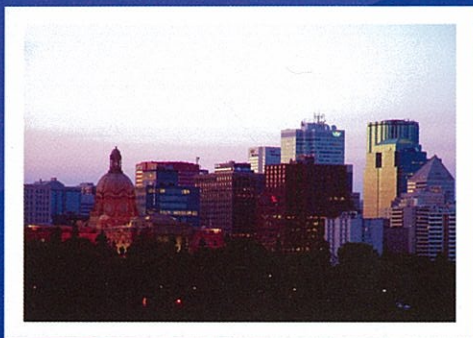

Strong support for the Conservative tough on crime approach, helping to keep Edmonton's streets safe.

Ring-road and highway improvements to reduce traffic congestion

Over $100 million for Edmonton's LRT expansion and public transit projects

$85 million for the construction of the Royal Alberta Museum

$20 million towards the purchase of new energy-efficient buses for Edmonton transit

Experience you can TRUST

Laurie was born in 1947 and joined the Royal Canadian Air Force at the age of 18. He served 33 years in the Air Force, achieving the rank of Lt. Colonel.

Upon retirement, Laurie worked in the financial services sector before entering politics in 2003. He defeated Deputy Prime Minister Anne McLellan in 2006. In 2007, he was appointed as Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of National Defence.

Since being elected, Laurie has attended nearly 800 community events in Edmonton. Laurie has been married to his wife Judy for 40 years. They have two adult children - Jennifer and Rob.

