

HOW THE ISSUES CHANGED AFTER 9/11

American policy was transformed in the decade after 9/11. We have taken key words and phrases from presidential State of the Union speeches to give a snapshot of the important issues of the day. For comparison purposes we have gone back as far as Republican George H.W. Bush, and then through the era of Democrat Bill Clinton. The issues changed dramatically during the presidency of George W. Bush following 9/11 but have changed again under Barack Obama.

