

WE REMEMBER

Each individual dot creating the image below represents a single life lost by each of the 107,162 Canadians killed in both World Wars, the Korean War, peacekeeping operations and the conflict in Afghanistan. The image below attempts to give perspective to all that we have lost, and all that has been given.

