Recommendations and Reasons continued....

Vancouver to pick him up and drive him back to the United States. Both family members stated he did not intend to remain in Canada.

- Subject has shown previous non-compliance and disregard for the law as he has a an extensive criminal history in the United States;
- -Subject has weak ties to the community in Canada; He stated he has two relatives in Canada that he claims to have had contact with in the past. When these relatives were contacted they could not confirm that they knew the subject and denied they had met him; Subject admitted that some of the other Canadian contact names he provided were friends of this father but he had never met them and only used them so that he could provide Canadian contacts upon entry into Canada.
- Subject admitted to his criminal convictions in the United States for Assault and Theft;
- Indices checks showed subject's criminal convictions for Assault and Theft in the State of Washington, USA in 2000.
- The King County Superior Court in Washington, USA was contacted and confirmed the subject's convictions for Assault and Theft.
- -The Redmond Police Department in Washington State was contacted and confirmed the arrest, charge and conviction of the subject in 2000 for Assault and Theft.
