DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. (1) No person shall carry on within the City any business, trade, profession or other occupation without holding a subsisting City license therefor.

- (2) Every person applying for a license shall, at the time of making the application, pay to the City the fee for such business, trade, profession or other occupation as specified in Schedule "A" of this By-law.
 - (3) Every person who operates more than one store, branch, premises or place of business in respect of any business, trade, profession or other occupation shall take out a separate license in respect of each such separate store, branch, premises or other place of business.
 - (4) A person who is employed on a salary basis by some other person shall be deemed not to be carrying on a profession.
 - (5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this by-law, a public bike share shall only require one license under this by-law to operate any number of public bike share stations.
- (1) All applications for licenses pursuant to this By-law shall be made to the Inspector on the form provided for that purpose.
 - (2) On receipt of an application and before issuing any license thereon, the Inspector shall ascertain whether the applicant has at any time within the preceding 5 years been convicted of any offence under any Statute of Canada, the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, or under any By-law of the City of Vancouver and the Inspector, if of the belief that the nature of the offence relates to the business, trade, profession or other occupation for which the application has been made, shall refuse to issue the license. If the Inspector refuses to issue such license the applicant may appear before Council who may grant or refuse the application.
 - (2a) Notwithstanding any other section of this By-law, the Inspector may refer any application for a license to Council who may grant or refuse the application.
 - (3) All applications for licenses shall give the description in detail of the premises in or upon which the applicant intends to carry on the business, trade, profession or other occupation in respect of which the application for a license has been made; and no person to whom a license has been granted shall carry on such business, trade, profession or other occupation in or upon any premises other than those set forth on the said application and license without first making an application pursuant to this section for a new license or a transfer of such license as hereinafter provided.
 - (4) All premises in or upon which the applicant proposes to carry on or conduct any business, trade, profession or other occupation in respect of which a license is required to be held pursuant to this By-law shall comply with all relevant by-laws of the City before any such license is granted; and the applicant shall, upon request, produce certificates or letters of approval as may be required by federal, provincial or municipal authorities.

- (5) Subject to the provisions of this by-law the Inspector shall issue a license to an applicant.
 - (6) Where a license has not been issued to an applicant the Inspector shall not be required to refund to the applicant the amount of the applicable fee which is referred to in Schedule "A" of this by-law as the "Non-Refundable Portion of Fee.
 - (7) If the Chief License Inspector determines, based on the operating hours, location, nature of the business and previous safety issues, that the operation of a business will be significantly safer:
 - (a) if more than one employee is present at the business during regular hours, then the Chief License Inspector may require as a condition of the business license that a minimum of two employees be present on the business premises at all times while the business is open to the public; and
 - (b) if locking devices are installed in an interior room of the business premises, other than a washroom, then the Chief License Inspector may require as a condition of the business license that no locking devices may be installed in any interior rooms of the business.
 - (8) Every license holder must comply with all federal and provincial laws, and the issuance by the City of a license is not a representation of any kind that a business is compliant with any federal, provincial or other laws, including by-laws.
 - (9) If this by-law stipulates a minimum age of employment for a particular type of business, the operator must maintain a current record of all employee names, dates of birth and either a B.C. Driver's License Number or B.C. ID number, and make that record available to the Chief Constable or Chief Inspector upon request.
- 5.
- (1) Any person desiring to obtain a transfer of any license, or interest in any license, issued pursuant to this By-law and held by any other person, shall make an application the same as that required to obtain a license under this By-law; and the powers, conditions, requirements and procedures relating to the granting and refusal of licenses and appeals thereon, shall apply.
 - (2) No person who purchases the interest of, or part of the interest of, any person licensed pursuant to this By-law shall carry on or continue such business, trade, profession or other occupation without first having obtained a transfer of license or a new license.
 - (3) No person to whom a license has been issued under this By-law shall change the location of the premises in which the business, trade, profession or other occupation is carried on without first having applied to the Inspector to have the license altered to reflect the new location; and the powers, conditions, requirements and procedure relating to the granting or refusal of licenses and appeals thereon, shall apply to all such applications.

- (4) No license shall be transferred from one person to another more than once during any calendar year.
 - (5) A person applying for the transfer of a license shall pay the fee as specified in Schedule "A" of this By-law.
- 6.
- (1) All licenses issued under this By-law will be for the calendar year current at the time of the issuance of such license, and will expire on December 31 of that calendar year except if:
 - (a) a license is sooner forfeited under this By-law;
 - (b) a license is issued on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis; or
 - (c) the Inspector, under subsection (6) of this section 6, sets a different term for a license.
 - (2) Every person whose license expires on the 31st day of December in any year shall make application for a license for the next year by the 1st day of January of that year or as soon thereafter as the business, trade, profession or other occupation is proposed to be conducted.
 - (3) If a person commences any business, trade, profession, or other occupation after January 1 in any calendar year and if the annual license fee payable by that person for the whole calendar year would be $10.00 or more then, despite section 3 of this By-law, the license fee payable by that person is to be the product arrived at by multiplying the applicable annual license fee for the whole calendar year by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of whole or partial months the business, trade, profession, or other occupation is to operate during the calendar year and the denominator of which is 12 plus the application fee set out in Part 3 of Schedule B to this By-law.
 - (4) Where the license fee for any business, trade, profession or other occupation required to be licensed under this By-law is based on the capacity or accommodation of the premises, no person shall change the capacity or accommodation available without first having notified the Inspector and paid any additional license fee payable as a result of such change.
 - (5) Every license issued pursuant this By-law shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises or on the thing or article in respect of which the license is issued.
 - (6) Council hereby delegates to the Inspector the authority to set the term of a license, subject to the forfeiture of a license under this By-law, as follows:

- (a) if a person applies for a license in November or December of any calendar year, that person may pay the pro rated license fee under subsection (3) of this section 6 or may pay that pro rated fee and the license fee for the next calendar year, in which latter case the Inspector may issue a license for a term equal to the aggregate of the one or two months of the then current calendar year that person operates the business, trade, profession, or other occupation and the next calendar year; and
 - (b) if a person operates a business, trade, profession, or other occupation that requires periodic certification or licensing under the authority of a statute of the Province of British Columbia, the Inspector may issue a license for a term that expires on the same date the provincial certification or licensing expires.
- 7. Every owner or occupier of any real property in the City shall give to the Inspector and to any member of his or her staff authorized by the Inspector for the purpose, such access at any reasonable hour to such real property and every part thereof and such information with respect thereto as may be reasonably required to enable necessary inspection to be made.
- 7.1 Every person who requires a copy of a license must pay to the City a fee set out in Schedule B to this By-law.
- 7.2 Every person who requires a change of business name or business trade name under a license must pay to the City a fee set out in Schedule B to this By-law.
- 7.3 Every person who requires a change of business address under a license must pay to the City a fee set out in Schedule B to this By-law.
- 7.4 Every person who requires a change of business license category must pay to the city a fee set out in Schedule B to this By-law.

AUCTIONEERS

- 10.4 (1) REPEALED

- (2) No auctioneer's license shall be granted in the name of more than one person, nor in the name of any firm, company or corporation; and no license shall be used except by the person to whom it has been issued.
- (3) When goods are put into an auctioneer's hands for sale, the auctioneer shall give a receipt containing an itemized statement of all such goods. When such goods, or any of them, are sold the auctioneer shall, on demand, strictly account to the person who entrusted the goods to the auctioneer.
- (4) Every auctioneer shall keep books of account of all business transactions of the auctioneer, whether in a public Auction Room or elsewhere. The books shall record:
 - (a) the names and addresses of all persons entrusting goods to the auctioneer for sale;
 - (b) an itemized list of all such goods; and
 - (c) the names and addresses of all persons purchasing any goods from the auctioneer.
- (5) No person conducting an auction sale shall employ any person to make any noise or public outcry in or near any auction room or place where any auction is taking place for the purpose of attracting the attention of the public, nor install or use or permit the use or installation of any automatic or electric alarm, bell or loudspeaker in or near any auction sale. Provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the auctioneer from using a microphone and loudspeaker within a public auction room if such loudspeaker cannot be heard outside the auction room.
- (6) No auctioneer shall, directly or indirectly, bid or employ any other person to bid on the goods offered for sale at any auction sale.
- (7) No person conducting an auction shall proceed to offer for sale any watch, plate or jewellery before first announcing to the persons present whether the watch, plate or jewellery is gold or gold plate, silver or silver plate or base metal and, in the case of a watch, also announcing the maker's name, the number of jewels contained in the said watch and whether the jewels are diamonds, rubies, sapphires or glass.
- (8) A purchaser at any auction sale shall have the right to return the goods to the auctioneer at any time within three (3) days of the date of sale if they be not of the quality or value represented, and the auctioneer shall return the price of the goods to the purchaser.
- (9) No person shall sell at public auction any prize packages or dispose of any goods in any form without disclosing the nature of the goods in question. Provided, however, that this subsection shall not apply to the public auction of goods pursuant to statute.
- (10) No person shall conduct, carry on or suffer or permit to be conducted or carried on any mock auction without having first obtained a permit from the Council.

- (11) No person shall sell or offer for sale by auction any new jewellery, watches, clocks, binoculars, optical instruments, cameras, luggage, leather goods, plastic goods, imitation leather goods, cigarette cases, compacts, mechanical pencils, mechanical pens, precious stones, semi-precious stones, gold, silver, platinum or plated ware, or any of them, without first having obtained a permit for such sale from the Council.
- (12) Application for the permit referred to in subsections (10) and (11) shall be made in writing to the Inspector and any such application shall include an inventory of the goods to be sold showing the cost to the applicant. Such inventory shall be verified by statutory declaration.
- (13) No person shall erect, display or exhibit any sign or advertising of any nature using the word or words "auction", "action", "auction sale", "action sale" or any other word or words similar to the word auction, in connection with any sale other than a bona fide auction sale conducted by a licensed auctioneer.

AUTO PARKING LOTS

- 10.5
- (1) It shall be a condition of the granting of a license to any person to carry on the business of an auto parking lot that one sign shall be posted at each entrance to the parking lot and one sign at each exit of such parking lot, stating in wording clearly legible by day or night, the circumstances under which a vehicle may be removed from the lot and the address of the place at which it may be reclaimed. The provisions of this subsection shall also apply to unlicensed Commercial Parking Lots.
 - (2) Except as hereinafter provided, no person shall cause any motor vehicle to be removed from a commercial parking lot without the authority of the owner of the vehicle.
 - (3) Subject to the regulations hereinafter provided, an owner, occupier or operator of a commercial parking lot, or a duly authorized agent of such owner, occupier or operator, may cause a motor vehicle to be removed from a commercial parking lot where
