You never know what you'll find...

Since 1921, Canada Salvage Co. has been the go-to place for hardware, housewares and so much more.

"We sell everything, including the kitchen sink, at prices that are often less than big box stores," says Wayne Chapieski, who works with his father, Alphy, and brother Brian and his wife Debbie in Canada Salvage on Ottawa Street. His brother Kevin and sister Debbie Quenneville and her husband Ray work in the Tecumseh store.

Comfortably sized, both locations let you get in and out quickly. However, the well-stocked aisles tempt customers to linger and explore.

"You'll never know what you'll find," Wayne says.

Staff are always happy to assist. If haven't been able to find the electrical or plumbing part that you need elsewhere, chances are it is in stock at Canada Salvage. When it's not, the Chapieski family goes the extra distance to track it down.

Even special requests are cheerfully accepted. Recently, when a customer asked for a tray that would let him read a book in the bathtub, Canada Salvage located one.

to us first," Wayne recommends.

New deals are always arriving. Right now, Canada Salvage is selling hole saws, masonry tool bits and other tools by Makita, Black & Decker and more brand name manufacturers at prices "way beneath regular retail," Wayne says.

Good quality pliers, normally $4.99, are just $1 to $1.99.

Look no farther for electrical supplies. Canada Salvage stocks breakers and more by every manufacturer. Wall fixtures valued at $50 are now $20. Five-light chandeliers normally priced up to $200 are $69.

When in need of plumbing fixtures and parts, heating products and other construction items, depend on the staff's useful tips. Canada Salvage folks really know their stuff.

Refresh your home for spring with budget-friendly products from Canada Salvage. A gallon of good quality semi-gloss latex paint, custom tinted to your specification, is only $19.99. A large can of spray paint is $2. Get your yard in order with garden tools and other seasonal merchandise now in store.

Home cooks love browsing Canada Salvage for everyday and unusual cookware, gadgets and tableware. There are even groceries to stock the pantry.

With its long history, there's a little bit of Canada Salvage in most local homes. "We are Windsor's original one-stop shop," Wayne says. "If we don't have it, they don't make it."

Canada Salvage Co. has stores at 1262 Ottawa St. in Windsor (519-254-5262) and on Tecumseh and Manning roads in Tecumseh (519-979-2424).
