For The Dreaming Tree Wines, environment is incredibly important. Both Sean McKenzie and Dave Matthews decided early on that they wanted their wines to be associated with a local charity in each country their wine is sold.

Here in Canada, the winery has partnered with Tree Canada whose mission is to bolster Canada's urban forests and inspire people to participate in, and advocate for, community greening.

For every bottle of Dreaming Tree purchased, you're helping give back to our Canadian roots. Good grapes with great intentions to make the world a better place!
